

Pursuant to proposed changes to Article III of the By-Laws of the Staten Island Young Republicans, the following activities will be considered acceptable toward the qualifying criteria for membership:

- Collecting or binding petitions on behalf of a candidate.
- Knocking doors on behalf of a candidate.
- Passing out literature on behalf of a candidate.
- Making phone calls on behalf of a candidate.
- Placing campaign signage on behalf of a candidate.
- Helping at a political event on behalf of a candidate.

Under the proposed changes to Article III, members may, at any time, propose to add additional activities to the list above. After the proposal is made, a motion for a vote must be had, and a majority of the members present must vote to approve it.
